

Hear Ye, Hear Ye!

Four upcoming events you won't want to miss!

Mount Harmon Colonial Picnic, Sunday, June 6, 12 – 4pm

One of the best times to visit Mount Harmon and experience its colonial history and plantation hospitality is at the annual Colonial Picnic. The Picnic features Colonial Reenactors and Demonstrations, a gourmet Eastern Shore picnic, Manor House Tours, Silent Auction, and Plantation Wagon Rides. Proceeds benefit Mount Harmon Plantation.

Colonial Picnic Tickets: Adults $35. Children $10

Lotus Blossom Festival, Saturday, July 31, 10am – 4pm

New this year ~ the Mount Harmon Lotus Blossom Festival will showcase the plantation's rare American Lotus in peak bloom and pristine natural surroundings, and include special nature-inspired activities and exhibitors. The American Lotus, a relative of the water lily and the largest wildflower in the United States, is rare in Maryland and neighboring states, but abundant at Mount Harmon.

FOMH Members & Children under 12 Free, Non-members $5

Revolutionary War Re-Enactment Festival Weekend Saturday & Sunday, October 23 & 24, 10am ~ 3pm

Mount Harmon is hosting a full scale Revolutionary War Re-enactment & Colonial Festival, complete with British & Rebel Encampments, military skirmishes, tactical demonstrations, colonial crafts, manor house tours, food vendors & much more!

FOMH Members $5, Non-members $10, Children under 12 Free

Bull & Oyster Roast, Saturday, Oct. 23rd, 5pm ~ 8pm

The Bull and Oyster Roast will be held in conjunction with our Reenactment Festival, giving history and oyster lovers even more to celebrate! Mount Harmon Bull & Oyster Roast: $50 per person

Mount Harmon Yuletide Tour, Saturday & Sunday December 4 & 5, 11am – 3pm

Get into the holiday spirit at Mount Harmon's Yuletide Manor House Tour. The Yuletide Tour features holiday decorations inspired by Colonial Williamsburg, hearth cooking demonstrations, and a greens sale. Visitors will enjoy hearth cooking demonstrations in the Colonial kitchen, and hearth-made ginger bread and Wassail Punch. Beautiful Williamsburg-style arrangements and fresh greens available for sale.
